Subject: Re: Draft letter to NRCS

Tom,

I think in the last paragraph we should offer to sit down with them and discuss their comments and concerns, rather than the current language which offers to go over our proposed responses to their comments. The latter sounds like we're offering to wordsmith the language of our responsiveness summary with them, which I don't think is our intent.
Eric

Subject: Draft letter to NRCS

Please take a look at the draft letter and let me know if you have any suggestions. I have also sent a copy to Marriane, Bill and the office directors for review. Main point is to clarify that Yakima is not part of a national initiative. Once we have a draft, HQ will want to review.
